Re: Poetry Night at Neville Public Museum

Green Bay, WI— The Neville Public Museum will host Poetry Night on Thursday, January 31, 2008. Featured reader will be Estelle Lauter.

Estella Lauter writes poetry about art, war, and politics. She published a chapbook with Finishing Line Press entitled Pressing a Life Together By Hand in their New Women's Voices Series. She was a Professor at UW-GB for 23 years and is now Professor Emerita from UW Oshkosh and a permanent resident of Door County.

The evening will begin with an Open Poetry Reading at 6:30 pm followed by the Featured Poetry Reader. Everyone is invited to share their work in the Open Poetry Reading but must register between 6:00-6:30 pm. For details, contact Matt Welter, Curator of Education, 920-448-7851.
