

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Poetry Night at Neville Public Museum

Green Bay, WI—July 22, 2008—The Neville Public Museum will host Poetry Night on Thursday, July 31. Featured readers are Judy Roy and June Nirschl and will present “a conversation of poetry” from their book, Two Off Q.

Ellen Kort, Poet Laureate from 2000 to 2004, said that Judy and Joy’s works “are witness poems, a lively and compassionate dialogue laced with tough good humor, and sprung from the intimacies of the heart. How blessed we are as readers to sit with these two poets, who have taken their rightful place among the best. This is a nourishing book of poems to return to again and again.”

The evening will begin with an Open Poetry Reading at 6:30 pm followed by the Featured Poetry Reader. Everyone is invited to share their work in the Open Poetry Reading but must register between 6:00-6:30 pm.

Matt Welter is the Curator of Education at the Neville Public Museum and can be contacted at (920) 448-7851 or welter_mt@co.brown.wi.us for more information about the event.
