SPARK! Exquisite Miniatures

Tuesday, February 20

10:00 a.m.

SPARK! is a cultural program for people with early to mid-stage memory loss and their care partners.

See our newest exhibit, Exquisite Miniatures, a collection of tiny paintings by artists Wes and Rachelle Siegrist. We'll also take a closer look at some of the tiny artifacts with big stories in the museum's collection.

SPARK! is a cultural program for people with early to mid-stage memory loss and their care partners. Programs are designed to keep participants actively engaged in their communities by providing experiences that stimulate conversations, provide peer support, and inspire creativity through engaging in museum experiences.

Dinner Program: Becoming a Latino in the United States

Thursday, February 22

5:00 p.m.

Professor Marcelo Cruz from the University of Wisconsin Green Bay addresses how Latinos learn to be a "minority group" here in the United States. How do people of Latin American heritage navigate the layers of identity in the United States as they adapt, modify and resist U.S. identity politics. This program is intended to complement the Neville's exhibit Estamos Aquí.

Enjoy dinner followed by an interesting and informative program at YOUR Neville Public Museum!

Each Dinner event will begin with a dinner at 5:00 p.m. in the Neville classrooms followed by a program at 6:00 p.m. in the theater.

If you want to check out the Estamos Aquí exhibit ahead of time, come early. Free for non-member guests starting at 4:00 p.m.

Program Cost

- $20 for each Neville Public Museum member
- $25 for each Non-member

The newest season of the Neville Cellar Series celebrates Green Bay's historic brewing heritage by creating beers inspired by Hagemeister, Hochgreve, and Van Dycke brewing companies. Guest brew masters from local craft breweries will share their brewing expertise and samples of their beer. Get hands-on and take a deep dive into Green Bay's fermented past, present and future.

Note: participants must be 21 years of age to participate, or be accompanied by an adult.

Cost:

Neville Member Rate: $20 per person

Non-Member Rate: $25 per person

Cost includes two 12 oz. bottles of each recipe per person. A session includes the brewing and bottling workshop. Pre-registration is required. Sorry, no refunds.
