Wisconsin Association for Home & Community Education to Present a Lilac to the Neville as a Centennial Celebration

Green Bay, WI---April 21, 2015---On Friday, April 24, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. members of the Northeast district of the Wisconsin Association for Home & Community Education will be present to plant a lilac bush at the Neville Public Museum to help the Neville celebrate its 100th Anniversary.

The Brown County Association for Home and Community Education (BCHCE) is part of the Wisconsin Association for Home and Community Education which is a nonprofit educational organization comprised of member associations in 57 counties in Wisconsin. The organization is unique in that the members extend the information they receive from University faculty and other reliable sources to the membership and community. BCHCE offers many opportunities for lifelong learners to continue to grow and learn.
