Bridging Communities • Connecting Generations

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LEON H. & CLYMEME M. BOND FOUNDATION Supporting the Neville Public Museum's Newest Exhibit *Estamos Aquí

Green Bay, WI—May 1, 2017— The Neville Public Museum Foundation is pleased to announce it has received funding for the Neville's newest exhibit, Estamos Aquí, from the LEON H. AND CLYMENE M. BOND FOUNDATION, INC.

*Estamos Aquí*, "We Are Here," is a bilingual exhibit featuring personal stories and artifacts from many Latino families living in Northeast Wisconsin. Estamos Aquí celebrates the diverse cultures and traditions that have endured emigration from across Latin America.

About the Neville Public Museum Foundation

The Neville Public Museum Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c)3 organization that funds all exhibits and programs at the Museum. It does this through tax-deductible donations received from individuals, corporations, and businesses; grants from private and corporate foundations; bequests and planned giving; service organizations; memberships in the Friends of the Neville; and proceeds from its Gift Shop.

The Neville Public Museum Foundation works in partnership with the Neville Public Museum of Brown County to provide educational opportunities and services on many different levels and to preserve our extended community's heritage for generations to come.

About the LEON H. & CLYMEME M. BOND FOUNDATION, INC.

The LEON H. & CLYMEME M. BOND FOUNDATION is a family endowed foundation committed to the growth and improvement of Oconto County and its surrounding areas. The Foundation awards grants in areas of health, education, social services, arts and culture, conservation/historic preservation, and community and recreational development.

The LEON H. & CLYMEME M. BOND FOUNDATION is particularly interested in supporting more effective ways of serving the people of the community, in strengthening nonprofit, private sector organizations and in meeting emerging community needs.
