One Night Only! Guns and Gowns Program at the Neville

Green Bay, WI—February 7, 2017—Guns and Gowns is not your average museum tour! You'll explore stories from over 200 years of fashion and firearms in Green Bay in a fun, lively atmosphere. Perfect for date night or a fun evening out with friends. Explorer the hidden treasures of the Neville, pulled from the museum's collections for one night only. Don't miss your chance to get up close and personal with these rarely-seen objects.

Come prepared to laugh, play games, experience the exhibits in a new way, and maybe even touch some stuff!

Guns and Gowns is $7 per person for non-Museum members and free for Friends of the Neville. To become a member and save, please visit our membership page.

Guests can visit www.nevillepublicmuseum.org or register online here.

The Neville will offer two additional programs this year that give guests access to rarely-seen objects from our collection. The dates and topics are:

America! – Wednesday, June 21
99 Ways to Die – Wednesday, October 18

Additional information about these programs can be found on our website.
