“Pedro the Pelican” Has Landed at the Neville

Green Bay, WI—April 11, 2018—The Neville Public Museum has added a new piece of outdoor art to the grounds. “Pedro the Pelican,” a graphic mural, now hangs on the side of the Museum.

Artist Kent Hutchison created Pedro the Pelican as homage to Green Bay’s History and natural resources and hopes “Pedro” will beautify and inspire Downtown Green Bay.

Kent says “Pedro’s was designed to reflect the major efforts put forth to reclaim and restore the Fox River and the flourishing downtown and vibrant communities of Green Bay,”
