FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

74th Art Annual Juried Exhibition Opening at the Neville Public Museum

Green Bay, WI---May 10, 2019---The 74th Art Annual exhibit is an all media, juried exhibition of current artworks produced by artists living in the counties of Northeastern Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. A total of 52 artworks by 37 artists were chosen by juror Lena Vigna, Curator of Exhibitions at the Racine Art Museum (RAM).

Art exhibits have been a significant part of the Neville Public Museum's history since its beginning in 1915. In November of 1942, museum director, Earl Wright, initiated this juried art competition. For over seventy years, the Neville has continued this tradition of bridging communities through the talent of regional artists.

We are pleased to announce:

- 1st Place is awarded to Andrew Linskens for his acrylic painting entitled "Abstract Antlers"
- 2nd Place is awarded to Kerie Karls for her mixed media piece entitled "Rising Into Her Fullness"
- 3rd Place is awarded to Donald Taylor for his porcelain vessel entitled "Moon Pot"

The 74th Art Annual will be on display at the Neville Public Museum from May 11, 2019 through June 9, 2019. You can find more information
