Green Bay, WI—October 22, 2020—We are pleased to announce the launch of the new NevillePublicMuseum.org/ website!

In our ongoing efforts to provide authentic digital content, the new design provides a more integrated, relevant, and memorable way to discover what the Neville Public Museum offers our community.

The new website includes high impact graphics and increased accessibility for navigation throughout the site. Work on the creation and implementation of the new site was provided by Konect (formerly DMI Studios) based in Green Bay, WI.

The Neville Public Museum of Brown County is an accredited cultural institution that champions history, science and art. Located in downtown Green Bay, Wisconsin, the museum is dedicated to the collection and preservation of significant objects relevant to Northeast Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. The museum seeks to bridge these multi-generational regional communities through engaging exhibits and dynamic programming.

The Collections Department supports the museum's mission through the management and preservation of our collections. There are over one million items in the permanent collections, including historic artifacts, original artworks, archeological objects, still photographs and film.
