

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Calling all Artists!

Green Bay, WI—May 3, 2012— Artists living throughout Northeastern Wisconsin or Michigan's Upper Peninsula are invited to enter the Neville Public Museum's 68th Art Annual Juried Exhibition. The prospectus and entry forms are now available on the Museum's website, www.nevillepublicmuseum.org. Printed copies will be available after May 8th and will also be sent to artists currently on the Neville's mailing list. Artists not on the mailing list can pick up the prospectus at the Museum after May 8th, or call 920-448-4460 to have one sent.

The deadline for all application forms, images, and entry fees is June 25, 2012. Up to two works per artist can be submitted for judging. This year's judges are Nancy Lamers and Vito Valenti, both from the Milwaukee area.

Artworks done in both two or three-dimensions can be entered; size limits and other restrictions are noted in the prospectus, as are the requirements for images submitted on CDs. Judging is done only from images on CDs; no printed images, slides, or actual artwork can be submitted. The Art Annual is highly competitive, with only one in about every three or four artworks selected for the actual exhibition.

The 68th Art Annual opens to the public on September 22, 2012 and continues through November 4, 2012.

The first Art Annual was organized by the Neville in 1942. It has been a popular event for regional and local artists ever since, skipping only three years in the last 70.

Editorial expansion of story available upon request.
