

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Century of Discovery: Creating a Community Legacy* to Open at the Neville Public Museum

Green Bay, WI---January 22, 2014---A Century of Discovery: Creating a Community Legacy opens Saturday, January 25, at your Neville Public Museum.

A Century of Discovery takes you back in time to the early years of the Neville Public Museum when display cabinets were filled with objects to contemplate and discuss. This exhibit celebrates the upcoming centennial of this museum as a place of learning and inspiration. Discover rarely seen objects from the museum's permanent collection with different objects being displayed throughout the year. Stay tuned for more information on featured collections. The exhibit runs through October 26, 2014.

We hope that whatever you discover in this exhibit will inspire you to participate in your public museum's exciting future, as an important cultural institution for the residents of this region and beyond.

A Century of Discovery is sponsored by the Byron L. Walter Family Trust, Schneider National Foundation, Inc., Green Bay Packaging, and the Cornerstone Foundation of Northeastern Wisconsin.

Thanks also to the Green Bay Packers Foundation, K.C. Stock Foundation, Dr. Richard and Ellen Horak, Oneida Nation, the Kaap Charitable Trust, the Joseph and Sarah VanDrissse Trust, Neville Art Guild, Primum Bonum, US Bank, and Pomp's Tire Service for their support.
