

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Deep Bay Fantasy Now Open at the Neville Museum

Green Bay, WI---August 22, 2013--- The Deep Bay Fantasy is a new addition to MuseumPLACE, located in the first-floor Walter Gallery.

This exhibition, although small in area, includes a huge number of artifacts from the museum's permanent collection in addition to loaned objects and found objects. Many of the artifacts have not been on display before. Perhaps the largest and most dramatic is a deep-sea diver's suit. Perhaps the smallest is a tiny seashell or fishing lure. Large or small, everything takes a whimsical look at what may (or may not) lie above or beneath the water's surface. Other intriguing objects include sculptures, tea cups, drinking vessels, a rod and reel, silverware, costume jewelry, a mermaid, an alligator, clock, hourglass, and many, many more.

This fascinating exhibit will continue through the end of October.

The Deep Bay Fantasy is sponsored by the Byron L. Walter Family Trust, Schneider National Foundation, Inc. and the Cornerstone Foundation of Northeastern Wisconsin.

Thanks also to the David R. Charles Sr. Family Foundation, Inc., the Lux Foundation, Dr. Richard and Ellen Horak, the Norman L. Jensen Trust, the Kaap Charitable Trust, Pomp's Tire Service, K.C. Stock Foundation and the Neville Art Guild for their support.

Editorial expansion of story available upon request.
