Monster Mayhem at the Museum Updated Information

Green Bay, WI—October 18, 2012— The Neville Public Museum is producing “spooktacular” October Halloween events: Monster Mayhem at the Museum (October 24, 26, 28) and Monster Mayhem-Super Saturday (October 20). Monster Mayhem- Super Saturday will now be free. To view exhibits, a Museum admission must be purchased. Attendees will join the Neville’s “Security Guard” as he recreates a Spook Show theater experience that was popular in the 40s, 50s and 60s.

First, find out about local ghosts with Tim Freiss of Green Bay Ghost Tours. Next, be terrified when our "Security Guard" shows a retro television episode of One Step Beyond, Lights Out or other classic TV surprises. Finally, accompany the "Guard" as he takes you on a 3-D tour of the Neville’s Haunted Inland Sea exhibit!

As members of the audience, you will actually become a part of the movie - horrifying! And while you’re touring the Inland Sea exhibit, you may even run into some “old friends” - all without ever leaving your seat! It’s amazing! It’s fantastical! And it might even be educational!

And on Monster Mayhem-Super Saturday (October 20th) there’s more! Enter our five-ring circus of frights and fun with arts and artists, short spine-tingling story and Tarot readings, Gnome Games to play and snacks from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. with Monster Mayhem performances at Noon and 4 p.m.

Saturday, October 20, 2012 at Noon and 4 p.m. Rated G (60 min). Free. To view exhibits, a Museum admission must be purchased.
