Out of the Shadows Now Open in Community Square in MuseumPLACE: A Celebration of Community

Green Bay, WI---September 17, 2013---Out of the Shadows is the latest installment of Community Square in MuseumPLACE: A Celebration of Community. The exhibit's mission is to show not only the diversity of the Hispanic Community, but also its long history.

Put together by a committee from CasaALBA Melanie, the exhibit features photos and stories of members of the community. Other components of the exhibit include flags of where Hispanic people in Green Bay are from (not just other countries), papel picado (perforated paper), and a case that shows Latin American items from the museum's collection as well as pieces from members of community.

Education Curator Matt Welter says, "This exhibit may be small in size but it's big in heart."

Programs offered in conjunction with Out of the Shadows include a Workshop on Mexican Dance on October 30th at 6:30 p.m. and a presentation by Maria Corpus on the History of the Migrant Worker in Northeast Wisconsin on November 20 at 6:30 p.m.

Out of the Shadows will run through February 9, 2014.

Out of the Shadows is made possible with a grant from the Greater Green Bay Foundation. Graphic design work was provided by JPC Producciones Video Fotografia.
