Neville Public Museum to require proof of Brown County residency on Wednesday evenings for free admission

Green Bay, WI—March 28, 2012—As of April 4, 2012, Neville Public Museum visitors will be required to show proof of Brown County residency in order to receive free admission on Wednesday evenings from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

“As a department of Brown County, we’re so grateful to receive the financial support of taxpayers who call our county home. This change to our admissions policy gives us the chance to still offer free admission for county taxpayers and their families each Wednesday night while at the same time allowing us to continue generating important operating dollars from patrons visiting the museum from other parts of the state and beyond,” said Museum Director Rolf Johnson.

Brown County tax levy helps support general museum operations. The Neville Public Museum Foundation, through fundraising and sponsorship activities, funds all of the museum’s exhibits and educational programs.
